Under the Company's Constitution, a director must retire from office (and is eligible to seek re-election) by no later than the third annual general meeting, or three years following his or her most recent election or re-election, whichever is longer.

Mr McLay was last re-elected at the Company's 2014 AGM.

The re-election of Mr McLay will be by way of ordinary resolution. Information on Mr McLay's qualifications and experience is set out below.

Mr McLay was appointed as a non-executive director of the Company on 31 March 2008 and has been Chairman since 30 June 2008. He is a member of the Audit and Risk Committee and the Remuneration Committee.

Mr McLay has more than 35 years' experience in financial markets, investment banking and broad business services. He has previously held executive roles at a number of local and overseas investment management and investment banking organisations, working in London, Singapore, Auckland and Sydney.

Mr McLay is currently Chairman of Torres Industries Pty Limited, an unlisted investment group engaged in shipping, aviation, non-bank financial services and infrastructure activities across eight countries.

Mr McLay is also a Non-Executive Chairman of the Board of Clime Investment Management Limited, an Australian financial services company.

Mr McLay holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree, is a Chartered Accountant, a Chartered Secretary and a Senior Fellow of the Financial Services Institute of Australasia.

The Board considers Mr McLay to be an independent director and unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the re-election of Mr McLay to the Board.

Item 2(b) To re-elect Ms Leslie Martin

In accordance with clauses 20.1 and 20.7 of the Company's Constitution, Ms Martin retires by rotation and offers herself for re-election.

Under the Company's Constitution, a director must retire from office (and is eligible to seek re-election) by no later than the third annual general meeting, or three years following his or her most recent election or re-election, whichever is longer.

Ms Martin was last re-elected at the Company's 2014 AGM.

The re-election of Ms Martin will be by way of ordinary resolution. Information on Ms Martin's qualifications and experience is set out below.

Ms Martin has over 30 years' experience in commercial banking in a number of countries and is a specialist in payment and corporate cash management. She has been in the start-up phase of businesses with Chase Manhattan (now JP Morgan Chase) in New York and Hong Kong, arriving in Australia to establish the Chase presence when new banking licenses were granted as part of de-regulation in the mid-80s. She joined Westpac in 1994 as a General Manager to establish its Transaction Banking capability and later led the Working Capital Services business at the Commonwealth Bank.

Currently Ms Martin is an independent director of EFTPOS Payments Australia and a Director of IMA Asia, an independent economics advisory firm. In the past, she held Board positions with subsidiaries of the Commonwealth Bank and a variety of payments industry bodies.

Ms Martin has a Bachelor of Arts degree, a Master of Business Administration degree and is a Member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

The Board considers Ms Martin to be an independent director and unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of the re-election of Ms Martin to the Board.

Item 3 adoption of remuneration report

In accordance with section 250R(2) of the Corporations Act 2001, the Board is presenting the Group's remuneration report to shareholders for consideration and adoption by a non-binding vote.

The remuneration report which forms part of the directors' report is set out on pages 33 to 41 of the Group's 2017 annual report.

In summary, the remuneration report:

- explains the Board's policy in relation to the objectives and structure of remuneration;
- discusses the relationship between the policies and the Group's performance;
- provides details of performance conditions; and
- sets out the remuneration arrangements for KMP of the Group.

During the discussion of this item of business, shareholders will have an opportunity to ask questions and comment on the remuneration report.

The vote on this item is advisory only and does not bind the directors of the Group. However, the Board will take into account the outcome of the vote when considering the future remuneration arrangements of the Group.

Under the Corporations Act 2001, if 25 per cent or more of votes cast are against the remuneration report at two consecutive AGMs (known as the 'two strike' rule), shareholders will be required to vote at the second of those AGMs on a resolution (a 'spill resolution') that a further meeting be held within 90 days at which all of the Group's directors (other than the Managing Director) must stand for re-election.

No strike was recorded at the Group's last AGM. On this basis, while the vote on the remuneration report at this AGM may potentially be counted towards the two strikes in the future, no board spill can occur this year.

The Corporations Act 2001 prohibits certain persons from voting on this item of business. The voting exclusion statement relating to this item of business is set out on page 2 of this notice.

The Board unanimously recommends that shareholders vote in favour of adopting the remuneration report.
