

Diversity & Inclusion Policy

1. Introduction

- (a) Credit Corp Group Limited (Company) is committed to establishing and maintaining an inclusive workplace that embraces and promotes Diversity (defined below). The Company supports and encourages Diversity and inclusion at all levels: the Board, senior executives and its workforce generally.
- (b) The Company recognises the strategic and personal advantages that arise from a workplace where decisions are based on merit and where all Employees are treated equally. The Company does not tolerate discrimination, harassment, vilification or victimisation.
- (c) This Diversity Policy (Policy) sets out the Company's commitment to Diversity and inclusion in the workplace and provides a framework to achieve its Diversity goals.
- (d) This Policy should be read together with the Company's statement of values (which are available on the Company's website).

2. Definitions

In this Policy, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) ASX means ASX Limited (ABN 98 008 624 691) or the financial market conducted by ASX Limited, as the context requires.
- (b) Board means the board of directors of the Company.
- (c) Diversity includes, but is not limited to, differences that relate to gender, marital or family status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disabilities, ethnicity, religious beliefs, cultural background, socio-economic background, perspective, experience, personality, carer responsibilities or location.
- (d) Employee means a person who is an employee, officer, or director of the Group.
- (e) Group means the Company and its subsidiaries.

3. Who does this Policy apply to?

This Policy applies to the Board as a whole, and to all Employees individually.

4. Benefits of this Policy

- (a) The Company has adopted this Policy to acknowledge and appreciate the positive outcomes that can be achieved through the diverse range of abilities and perspectives that Employees bring to the Group through their Diversity.
- (b) The Company understands that organisational performance is linked to an inclusive environment that embraces and promotes Diversity.
- (c) This Policy is specifically designed to assist the Company to reach its strategic goals by:
  - (i) ensuring that all Employees are treated with equality and respect;
  - (ii) facilitating employment opportunities based on appropriate recruitment processes of considering a range of employees and attracting, rewarding and retaining staff with a diverse range of skills and experience;

- (iii) facilitating succession planning under which gender diversity is a relevant consideration;
- (iv) developing flexible workplace practices to recognise and meet the diverse needs of Employees;
- (v) building and maintaining a safe and open workplace;
- (vi) contributing to the community by fostering a culture of acceptance and teamwork; and
- (vii) meeting the Company's obligations under the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

5. Objectives

- (a) The Board will set measurable objectives (Measurable Objectives) in relation to each reporting period for achieving gender diversity, and other appropriate aspects of Diversity, in the composition of the Board, senior executives and workforce generally.
- (b) The Measurable Objectives will include, at a minimum, the Company's objectives for achieving gender diversity.
- (c) The Board will assess in relation to each reporting period the Group's progress towards achieving the Measurable Objectives.

6. Recruitment

- (a) The Company recruits based on merit, ensuring that the most appropriately qualified and experienced person is employed for each role.
- (b) The Company does not tolerate discriminatory behaviour in its recruitment or people management processes and ensures that all managers involved in recruitment and selection processes are appropriately trained.
- (c) The Company's recruitment and selection practices at all levels are structured so that a diverse range of candidates are considered and to guard against any conscious or unconscious biases that might discriminate against certain candidates.
- (d) The Company has a detailed training program aimed at enhancing the skills and knowledge of its Employees, and designed to foster the development of Employees and prepare them for senior management and board positions.

7. Flexible work practices

- (a) The Company supports flexible work practices to assist Employees to manage their personal and work commitments.
- (b) The Company offers Employees on extended parental leave the opportunity (without any obligation) to maintain their connection with the Company, by allowing such Employees to receive all-staff communications, and to attend work functions and training programs.

8. Responsibilities

The Board has responsibility to:

- (a) oversee this Policy including the review of its appropriateness and effectiveness;

- (b) encourage and promote any other initiatives, policies and processes appropriate from time to time to encourage and promote Diversity;
- (c) set Measurable Objectives in relation to each reporting period;
- (d) assess in relation to each reporting period the Group's progress towards achieving the Measurable Objectives; and
- (e) ensure compliance with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations in respect of Diversity.

9. Publication of this Policy and the Company's progress

- (a) This Policy will be available on the Company's website.
- (b) The Company will provide information in its annual report regarding:
  - (i) key features of this Policy;
  - (ii) the Measurable Objectives and the Group's progress towards achieving them; and
  - (iii) the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce or, if the Company is a relevant employer under the Workplace Gender Equality Act 2012 (Cth), the Company's most recent Gender Equality Indicators as defined in that Act.

10. Employee rights and obligations

- (a) This Policy does not form part of an Employee's terms of employment, appointment or engagement with the Group. A departure from the Policy or a failure to meet Measurable Objectives may result in reporting obligations for the Company, but is not intended to create direct legal obligations between the Group and Employees.
- (b) Nothing in this Policy will be taken, interpreted or construed so as to endorse:
  - (i) the principal criteria for selection and promotion of people to work within the Group being other than their overall relative prospect of adding value to the Group and enhancing the probability of achievement of the Group's objectives; and
  - (ii) any existing person within the Group being prejudiced by this Policy in their career development or otherwise, merely because their diversity attributes at any time may be more, rather than less, common with others.
- (c) This Policy is not to be used by the Group, or any Employee, to justify conduct which is contrary to any anti-discrimination or equal employment opportunity laws in any jurisdiction.

11. Review of this Policy

- (a) The Board will review this Policy periodically to ensure that it is operating effectively and consider whether any changes are appropriate.
- (b) This Policy may be amended by resolution of the Board.
